

PRESS RELEASE RE SHAHRZAD ATAI – 17.01.11

GSC Solicitors Appoints Specialist Solicitor with Iranian Law Capability to Boost International Private Client Offering

City law firm GSC Solicitors LLP has announced the appointment of Shahrzad Atai who will join the firm as a solicitor in the International Private Client team.

Shahrzad spent 6 years working in a commercial law firm in Iran before coming to the UK to study English law. She trained at Lavery Haynes in London and completed a Masters degree in Professional Legal Practice at the College of Law.

She is fluent in Farsi and has experience of commercial property, corporate and litigation as well as private client work for high net worth individuals in Iran and in the UK. She also has a personal interest in women's rights and human rights.

Commenting on the appointment, GSC Senior Partner Saleem Sheikh said: "We are delighted to have Shahrzad join us and bring a new dimension to our work, particularly our international private client services. She has extensive experience dealing with very selective clients and she will be a great asset for the team and the firm."
